To assist you in planning for the introduction of the Australian Curriculum we aim to identify with some of the Focus areas and to explore a number of Key Inquiry questions that relate to not only aspects of the History Curriculum, but potentially to other areas of the curriculum through our education program.

The extensive collection in the Museum references themes of whaling, convicts, World War I, II & Vietnam, local history and families, Louisa Anne Meredith supported by temporary and travelling exhibitions.

Contact the Curator - Maureen Martin Ferris, to discuss your individual focus and booking times.

- How can stories of the past be told and shared?
- How have changes in technology shaped our daily life?
- How and why do people choose to remember significant events of the past?
- Why did the great journeys of exploration occur?
- What is the nature of the contribution made by different groups and individuals in the community?
- What is the significance of World War I and World War II?
- Why did the Europeans settle in Australia?
- What aspects of the past can we see today? What do they tell us?
